

Most Common Toxicologic Causes of Seizures in Dogs

Provided by the ASPCA Animal Poison Control Center

24-hour veterinary diagnostic and treatment hotline: 888.426.4435

Category 1: Medications	Fluorouracil (5-FU) Cream Fluoroquinolone antibiotics Lamotrigine Metronidazole Amphetamines Diphenhydramine Procaine Penicillin G Any medications with the potential to cause hypoglycemia (such as sulfonylureas)	Ivermectin Isoniazid Ibuprofen Phenylbutazone Vilazodone Phenylpropanolamine 5-hydroxytryptophan (5-HTP)
Category 2: Plants	Mushrooms Sago Palm	Brunfelsia (Yesterday-Today-and-Tomorrow)
Category 3: Food	Xylitol Ethanol	Caffeine Dark Chocolate
Category 4: Rodenticides Insecticides	Metaldehyde Strychnine 4-Aminopyridine	Bifenthrin Zinc Phosphide
Category 4: Other Drugs	Cocaine Cannabis 4-Aminopyridine	Amphetamines Synthetic Cannabinoids
Category 5: Miscellaneous	Ethylene Glycol Bee sting envenomation	Mycotoxins Homemade play dough or salt dough

ASPCapro.org

ASPCA Animal Poison Control Center: aspcapro.org/poison