

Top Ways to Minimize Disease Transmission During Surgery & Recovery

- 1 Always use a sterile needle for injections

- 4 Prevent cross-contamination between patients and equipment on the recovery mat

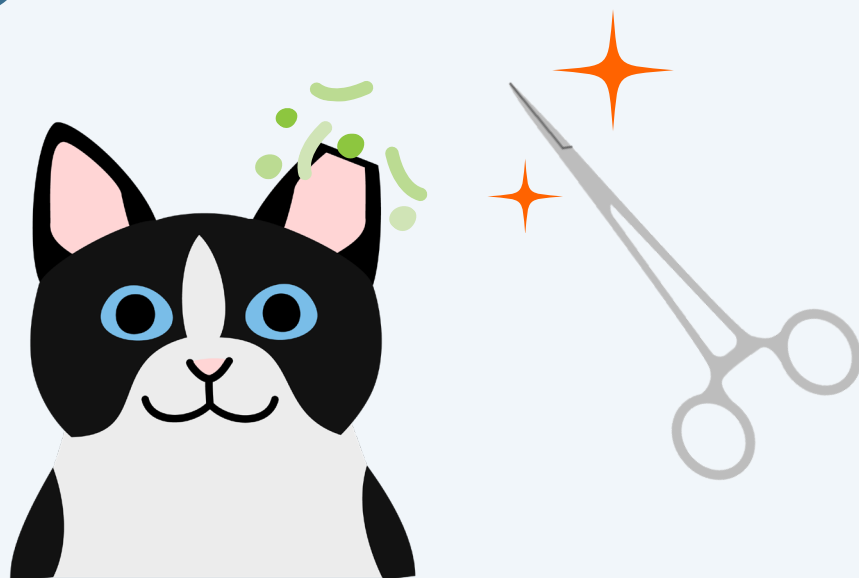

- 2 Wear appropriate operating room attire

- 5 Use a new sterile pack and drape for each surgery

- 3 Use a clean clamp for every ear-tip

- 6 Sanitize hands between patients

